3. What personal data we process in the context of the (hybrid) meeting of shareholders?

We process name, address, email address, mobile telephone number, number of the securities account, registration number of the certificate of deposit, and the number of shares of shareholders who have registered for a (hybrid) meeting of shareholders. Aegon will be recording and broadcasting the Annual General Meetings (AGM) whereby participants to the meeting may be audible or visible. These recordings will be used to enable shareholders to virtually participate in the AGM and to enhance transparency by facilitating that stakeholders, regardless of their location or time zone, are informed about matters discussed during the AGM.

4. For what purpose and on what legal grounds do we process your personal data?

We use your personal data for the purposes set out in Securities Book Entry Transfer Act (Wet Giraal Effectenverkeer) and The Bermuda 1981 Companies Act. These purposes are, in particular, the communication with, and identification of, you as a shareholder and the matters concerning the (hybrid) meeting of shareholders such as the technical aspects of holding a meeting of shareholders. In addition, we may also process your personal data to fulfil other legal obligations, for example, regulatory requirements, as well as stock exchange, commercial and tax legislation retention requirements.

We collect and process your personal data in compliance with the GDPR and all other relevant data protection provisions. The legal basis for processing your personal data is Securities Book Entry Transfer Act (Wet Giraal Effectenverkeer) and The Bermuda 1981 Companies Act in conjunction with article 6 (1) (c) GDPR and article 6 (1)(d) PIPA. The recordings of the AGM and the legal basis for processing your personal data will be conducted in accordance with article 6 (1)(f) GDPR in order to fulfill the purpose outlined under above.

5. From whom do we obtain your personal data?

ABN AMRO provides us with the relevant personal data required to register shareholders, and to organize a (hybrid) meeting of shareholders.

6. What categories of recipients do we share your personal data with?

- Third party suppliers and service providers: next to ABN AMRO Bank N.V., we use a number of other external service providers, including Lumi (voting mobile app) and the civil law notary or representative of the company involved with (hybrid) meetings of shareholders. External service providers who process personal data on our behalf as data processors are contractually bound to strict Data Processing Agreements in accordance with article 28 (3) GDPR and article 15 (5) PIPA.
- Other recipients: your personal data will only be shared with third parties if we are legally obliged to do so, for example, with the notary, government bodies, public authorities, regulatory agencies, and pursuant to court rules and orders.
- The recordings of the AGM will be shared on aegon.com site and Aegon YouTube channel to promote transparency.

7. For how long will your data remained stored?

We will process your personal data for as long as it is needed in the context of the relevant meeting of shareholders of Aegon Ltd. and for as long as is necessary to comply with our obligations under applicable laws, and, if relevant, to deal with any claim or dispute that might arise in connection with your shareholding. We will delete your personal data as soon as it is no longer necessary for the purposes mentioned above. In addition, the AGM recordings will be deleted as soon as it is no longer necessary to fulfill the purposes mentioned above, but no later than two years from the date of publication.

8. Do we transfer your personal data to countries outside the European Economic Area (EEA)?

Yes, Bermuda is outside the EEA. Limited information will only be shared with our office that is located in Bermuda, where limited data is being processed.
